RUSSIA TO BE DRENCHED IN BLOOD OF REVOLUTION

Imperial Guard Reported to Have Revolted, and the Cossacks Become Indifferent.

A MASSACRE OF JEWS IN WARSAW IS NOW PLANNED

Soldiers Begin Firing Into Strikers and Kill and Wound Many.

A REIGN OF TERROR BEGINS AND THE PEOPLE ARE PANIC STRICKEN

Witte and Trepoff Are Now Reported to be at Log-gerheads.

BLACK SEA SQUADRON REVOLTS.

London, Oct. 30.—A Reuter telegram from Odessa says that there is a persistent but unverified rumor circulated that the sailors of the Black Sea Squadron have mutinied at Batum, and that Admirals Baffitt and Chukine have been killed. The squadron then sailed for Sebastopol, flying the revolutionary flag.

SOCIALISTS TAKING A HAND.

Warsaw, Oct. 30.—The socialists are today taking an active part in the strike. They have closed the banks and are now trying to stop all traffic. Several Tram cars were overturned.

There is alarming news from all the Polish provinces, stating that peasants are revolting and have begun to destroy government property.

TO MASSACRE THE JEWS.

St. Petersburg, Oct. 30.—Quiet prevails here, but reports from Southern Russia, patriots are preparing for a massacre of Jews. The attack on the Jews has already commenced and at Postoff ten Jews were injured.

CAN MAINTAIN STRIKERS A MONTH.

St. Petersburg, Oct. 30.—The number of strikers in this city has increased to 120,000. It is impossible to estimate the funds available to carry on the strike. The revolutionary committee declares it is ready to maintain the strikers for a month.

Kaiser to Protect the Czar.

Kiel, Oct. 30.—A German cruiser and torpedo boat division have left for the Russian coast and it is reported that the kaiser has ordered a fleet to be in readiness to protect the czar and family.

Many Casualties at Odessa.

London, Oct. 30.—The casualties yesterday at Odessa numbered 25 civilians killed and 287 wounded and two Cossacks killed and two injured.

Crisis is Near.

St. Petersburg, Oct. 30.—While the day passed quietly, without bloodshed in the Russian capital and while the city is outwardly calm, yesterday's developments indicate that a crisis is imminent. Although the streets are filled with troops and reinforcements are now pouring in from Finland, the government seems utterly powerless to cope with the situation and many calm observers seem seriously to believe the present regime is tottering to its fall.

Differences have developed between Count Witte and General Trepoff, and while the precious moments pass the emperor, surrounded by the imperial family remains shut up at Peterhoff, seemingly still hesitating as to what course to pursue.

Grave doubts are expressed whether even the imperial guard can now be depended upon. Discontent is rife. Early yesterday morning the Fourteenth Equippage sailors of the guard who have been shut up like prisoners in the barracks on the Moskva canal, demolished the windows and the furniture and in the afternoon a detachment consisting of four officers of the guard went to the lawyer's assembly and told the barristers that many officers and a large part of the troops were disgusted with the government and ready to enlist in the movement for freedom. They asked for aid towards effecting organization and said they had discussed among themselves the question of resigning but had decided to show that people in uniform could help achieve liberties.

Even the Cossack patrols in keeping idlers moving in the streets seemed careful not to use their whips and simply drove the crowds along before the advancing horses.

Among the countless baseless reports which received credence were that the emperor embarked on a vessel and fled to Denmark; that General Trepoff had been killed by a bomb and that Vice Admiral Birleff had been assassinated by mutineers in the Black sea.

With a strike in the government postoffice last night, communication with the interior has practically ceased. Government troops were placed in the telegraph office but only a few lines are working. The cable by way of Nyssand Sweden is now the only thread connecting Russia with the outer world.

The University, the Polytechnic institute and all educational institutions were closed yesterday so as to prevent further meetings being held in them. The university is surrounded by troops.

Even the druggists have struck, and as there are many sick the physicians have divided the city into districts and also have selected stations for the giving of first aid to the injured in case of collision between the troops and the people.

The most interesting by far, however, is the news from Moscow, the real Russian capital, where, according to private reports, the municipal council and the committee of public safety are sitting continuously and where a struggle is momentarily expected between the "League of Russian patriots," a reactionary organization led by the priests and the newly organized militia and students.

The Moscow municipal council is also reported to have sent an ultimatum to the emperor demanding the promulgation of a constitution.

The government is no longer in communication with the forces in the far east except by cable by way of China.

The revolutionists openly declare that the government has ceased to exist and that nothing remains to be done but to overthrow it.

MINOR OFFICIALS KILLED IN A MINE

Had Entered to Ascertain if it Was Still Burning.

An Explosion Followed Their Investigation Killing Five of Them Instantly.

AND ONE OTHER HAS DIED

Pittsburg, Oct. 30.—Five minor officials of the Pittsburg & Westmoreland Coal company gave up their lives yesterday when entering the Hazel Kirk mine No. 1, of the company at Hazel Kirk, Pa., eighteen miles east of this city, to ascertain if a portion of the mine was still burning as a result of the explosion of two weeks ago.

The dead: JOHN HORNICAL, superintendent; DANIEL GRIFFITH, foreman; JOSEPH HUNTER; JOHN LAVEY; HENRY CLAYBORNE, fire boss.

ANDREW ROPER, who was some distance behind the unfortunate men, escaped instant death but was so badly burned that he died three or four hours later.

All were married with large families and men of considerable means.

Two weeks ago an explosion in the mine caused the death of two men. The entry in which the explosion occurred was closed up and water turned on. As the five men approached the portion of the mine which was burning, they became aware that the water had not extinguished the blaze. They decided to tear down the bulkhead erected to confine the fire to one entry of the mine.

Just as the covering was removed there was a terrific explosion and the five men were blown different ways and all instantly killed.

Roper reached the bottom of the shaft, gave the alarm and died three hours later. The mine is now burning but no miners are entombed.

Mr. Leb Perry, of Princeton, an uncle of Mr. L. C. Perry, the saloon man of this city, who left here more than a week ago without apprising his family of where he was going, arrived in Paducah yesterday with the first definite news of the whereabouts of his nephew.

Mr. L. C. Perry is in Los Angeles, Cal., and is ill. He wired to his uncle for funds saying he desired to return home. His uncle came here to consult with the family.

Mr. Perry left Paducah to seek a new location, leaving a note behind to this effect, but did not say where he was going. Of late he had been talking a great deal of going west and it was presumed this was the direction he would take.

COMPLETING DEAL FOR NEW RAILROAD

Prominent Officials are Conferring at Nashville.

It is Expected That the Deal Taking Over the Tennessee Central
Will Be Consummated.

THE DATE NOT ANNOUNCED

Nashville, Tenn., Oct. 30.—There was a gathering of notable officials of the Southern and Illinois Central railways in Nashville last night, and on Tuesday officials of the Tennessee Central will be in the city. President Spencer, Vice Presidents Finley, Culp, Andrews, Ackert, Powell and others of the Southern; Vice President Murphy, General Manager Garrett and General Freight Agent Biles of the Cincinnati Southern; President Fish, Vice President Harahan and others of the Illinois Central, are here. All these officials will be in Nashville until Thursday.

President Spencer said last night that the exact date when the Southern and the Illinois Central would begin operating the Tennessee Central had not been decided. The Southern officials, he said, must first inspect the property and confer with the officers of the Illinois Central. This will be a matter, however, of only a few days.

From another source it was learned that the Harriman division of the Tennessee Central would be operated as a part of the Cincinnati Southern Division of the Southern Railway.

The presence of Messrs. Murphy, Garrett and Biles of Cincinnati, has to do with matter of operating the Harriman division. It is expected as soon as the deal is perfected through trains will be operated from Nashville to Cincinnati via Harriman.

As the train bearing President Fish and other officials of the Illinois Central coming for the conference over the transfer of the Tennessee Central approached the yards last night some miscreant hurled a brick through the window of the observation section of Mr. Fish's car, in which the officials sat. No one was injured. The police are making a diligent search for the party.

NO DATE

Has Yet Been Set for the Evitts Case.

A decision as to when the Evitts impeachment case will be taken up will probably be reached by the attorneys and President Dick Davis, of the board of aldermen, this week. Attorney Hal Corbett, one of the attorneys for the prosecution, has just returned from Pennsylvania and he has not had time yet to confer with the other attorneys and President Davis stated this afternoon that he would see Attorney Corbett tomorrow and find out about it.

A few days ago it was stated that the prosecution would dismiss the old charges and file entirely new ones, but the nature of them has not been made public. The investigation of the old charges was never completed as the circuit court interfered with an injunction. Since then City Jailor Tom Evitts has been indicted for assault and battery.

GIRL'S IDENTITY IS AT LAST LEARNED

Body in Suit Case That of Susan Geary.

She Was a Chorus Girl in the Shepherd King and Had Been Missing Since September.

HER SWEETHEART ARRESTED.

Pittsburg, Pa., Oct. 30.—After a long and searching examination at police headquarters lasting until after one o'clock this morning Morris Nathan, secretary to the manager of the "Shepherd King" company was held on a charge of murdering his sweetheart, Susan Geary, the victim of the Winthrop suit case mystery which has been puzzling the Boston authorities for more than a month.

Nathan is now confined to the hospital in the jail, and buried his face in his hands and sobbed, "Life has been a torture and unspeakable misery and longing." He said he knew nothing of the case and swooned when locked up. He has been in a semi-comatose state since.

Nathan Confesses.

Pittsburg, Oct. 30.—Nathan has made a complete confession of all he knows. He admitted he was responsible for the girl's condition and names another woman as implicated in the case. The police believe that Nathan is not the man wanted for murder but believe the murderers will be found.

Identity Learned at Last.

Boston, Oct. 30.—That the dismembered body found in the suit case at Winthrop September 21 is that of Susan Geary of Cambridge, is the belief of the girl's family and friends, and of the Boston police department.

Miss Geary, who was the daughter of J. D. Geary, was a chorus girl in the "Shepherd King" company and known on the stage as Ethel Durrell. She was 21 years of age, Mrs. Geary yesterday identified the three rings taken from the right hand found in the second suit case picked up near the new Charlestown bridge Friday last as those worn by her daughter when she absented herself from the theatrical company September 10.

Confirmation of Miss Geary's disappearance from the company came from Morris Nathan, secretary to the manager of the company and to whom Miss Geary was engaged.

The mystery of the first suit case seems to have been solved by the finding Saturday of a second suit case near the same place, in which were the arms and legs of a woman, which the police were immediately convinced were the missing members of the torso found in September.

The torso was wrapped in oil cloth, and the limbs found Saturday were encased in a wrapping identical with that wound about the torso. While investigating the Winthrop mystery the police located two pawnbrokers who had sold dress suit cases to a man answering the same description.

With the positive identification of the "suit case" murder victim as Susan Agnes Geary, the case is now near solution, and the police are likely to soon arrest the doctor, nurse and all concerned in the illegal surgery which caused the death of the girl.
